GENERAL PARTY INFORMATION

1. We aim to make your party as enjoyable as possible. In order to do this safely, RLSS UK qualified Lifeguards supervise the pool sessions. At all times, customers must ensure they abide by the instruction of the Lifeguards, for their own safety.
2. Before swimmers are allowed to enter the pool a Lifeguard will give a short safety talk, covering basic pool rules and pointing out emergency exits and safety signs. All non-swimmers will be asked to identify themselves at this point, buoyancy aids can be provided. The pool sessions last for 1 hour.
3. We have a cafe / meeting area, it can be used for the party organiser to provide refreshments for the party. The area must be vacated within 1.5 hour, after the pool session finishes.
4. We politely ask you to remove any large amount of rubbish or litter that may have been created, cleaning products are also available on request.
5. Car parking is free.
6. All spectators may view the pool from shallow end benching of the swimming pool, please ensure that shoes are removed or pool covers are utilised whilst on poolside.
7. Any medical conditions, such as epilepsy, should be reported to the Senior recreation officer and lifeguards on arrival. Please ensure that any medication that maybe required by swimmers whilst in the pool, is on the poolside.
8. Please arrive at least 15 minutes before the commencement of the party, in order that all swimmers are ready to enter the swimming pool promptly at the start of the session.
9. Lockers are provided, but personal belongings are left at the owner's risk. A £1 coin is required per locker; this is refundable.
10. Please ensure that personal belongings are not left in cubicles or on poolside when your session has finished
